This four bedroom detached house is located on East Avenue in Talbot Woods, the property is well positioned close to Talbot Heath school and West Hants Leisure centre. The property is privately set back from the road with a large driveway and front garden, with ample parking for multiple cars. Upon entry to the house there is a small lobby suitable for coats/shoes, you are then welcomed into a large hallway with further storage. On the ground floor there is a large living room and separate dining room. The kitchen has a range of floor and overhead units as well as a breakfast area, there is a separate utility room off of the kitchen with further storage. There is a third reception room which could be utilised as an additional bedroom or for a number of other uses, there is also access from the Hallway into the double garage. Upstairs there are four large double bedrooms all with fitted storage, the master also has an additional dressing room and en-suite bathroom with shower and bath. The remaining bedrooms are all serviced by the family bathroom with shower above the bath. Offered on an unfurnished basis.
